

NEW YORK, March 27—Louis and Joseph Daven, members of the well-known firm of Daven Bros., the latter being guilty to defrauding the government out of customs duties.

It may be placed in direct contact with the most delicate fabrics without fear of injury by stain or bleaching.

The image is a vertical strip, possibly a film negative or a heavily degraded document page. It is characterized by extreme contrast, with large black areas and bright, noisy horizontal bands. On the left side, there is a vertical sequence of small, rectangular frames, each containing some indistinct, high-contrast shapes. The rest of the image is dominated by horizontal streaks and noise, making any original content nearly impossible to discern.

TWO BEARS KILLED
IN VOLUNOA COUNTY.

JACKSONVILLE, March 27.—Killing two immense Florida bears in three days, in the record of a party of hunters from the city, who have just returned from a hunting expedition down in St. Johns and Volusia county. These in the party were John Durranco, Jim Davis, Wm. Hinton, Robert Hinton, Sam Henson, Deputy Sheriff Saveto, Lee Stuckey, C. F. Long and J. A. Nelson. Members of the party report a very enjoyable trip. Most of the hunting was done near the county line of the two counties, and the bears were killed in the country between the East Coast canal and the ocean. The largest of the two weighed 160 pounds dressed.

IN POPULARITY CONTEST
AND SPECIAL PRIZE OFFER.

CHANCE FOR SOME ONE OF THE CONTESTANTS TO SECURE THE SPECIAL PRIZE OFFER OF 100, 000 VOTES.

Contestants are working with renewed interest for both the bonus of 100,000 votes, which will be given to the one getting the most votes up to next Thursday at 5 o'clock, and the special prize of a beautiful diamond ring, which is to be given away in the Gazette-News Great Popularity Contest by L. H. Rowe & Co., the jewelers, to the contestant securing the most votes between March 9 and April 6. The bonuses do not count for or against a contestant in the diamond ring contest, that beautiful prize being given by L. H. Rowe & Co. to the one who actually secures the most votes between those dates on actual subscriptions obtained. Mr. Rowe states that this ring cost his firm $50 and would be retailed by most jewelers at between $60 and $75, so it is a prize to be coveted by any of the young ladies, all of whom will appreciate the subscriptions of their friends.

Contestants and their friends should bear in mind that the piano is not the only prize to be awarded in this contest. In addition to the valuable rebate certificates and scholarships a handsome desk now on display at the show window of the Bingham & Mailey company will be given to one of the young ladies.

No contestant need feel any timidity about asking anyone to subscribe to the Gazette-News for every subscriber gets his money's worth in the 52 issues of the paper that he gets for $1.50. A number of subscriptions are being overlooked daily because candidates hesitate about asking for subscriptions.
Practically every northern person who occupies a cottage in Daytona, Seabreeze and Daytona Beach during the winter will gladly subscribe for the Gazette-News. If asked the only reason that they do not subscribe is because their attention is not called to the matter. They want

PRESENTED WITH GOLD WATCH FOR BRAVERY.

G. S. MERRITT IN CHARGE OF GOLF GROUNDS AT HOTEL OR-MOND RECEIVES HANDSOME
GIFT FROM GUESTS.

Geo. S. Merritt, in charge of the golf grounds of the Hotel Ormond, was the recipient Friday night of a handsome gold watch and chain, presented to him by the guests of the hotel in recognition of acts of bravery on his part in assisting in the rescue of bathers from death in the surf on Ormond beach.

The bathing beach at Ormond has been staked and safety lines are used and a life saver is employed to look after the safety of persons bathing at that place and twice within the past two weeks, Mr. Merritt has been instrumental in the saving of bathers while rendering assistance to the regular beach guard.

Monday of last week a young lady winter resident of Ormond was in bathing in company with a lady friend who was a guest of the family and these ladies ventured beyond their depth and were caught in the undertow which is sometimes very strong in the surf, and were rescued with great difficulty, one of the ladies being unconscious when brought ashore. In this instance Mr. Merritt is said to have given valuable assistance in their rescue and on a previous occasion, about a week earlier, he assisted in the rescue of a gentleman who was stopping at the Inn on the ocean beach.
At that time Mr. Merritt's arms were severely lacerated by contact with the piling upon which the guard lines are stretched and he had scarcely recovered from these wounds when called upon again to plunge into the surf for the rescue of the ladies.

In the first instance Mr. Merritt is said to have been very handsomely recompensed by the rescued man and other guests of the house, while in the latter case the guests of the hotel combined and presented him with the watch and chain as stated.
